

MAF PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION 2022 RULES AND REGULATIONS

All photos must contain some representation of architecture and people from places in Michigan. The intent of the contest is to collect images to show how architecture motivates and inspire people. Each image will be judged based the following basic criteria and statement of “Architecture Does It”:

Does the image?

1. Express an emotional response to architecture
2. Illustrate a unique juxtaposition of people and space
3. Demonstrate the impact the architecture has on the people in the photograph
4. Evoke a memory about how we (and society) value architecture

Permissions:

By entering the competition, the Entrant grants all rights and permissions to the Michigan Architectural Foundation (MAF). These permissions include the right to reproduce the images in the 2022 and future competitions, use the images in all digital media formats including social media and the MAF web site. The intent is for MAF to use all photos submitted at their discretion for promotional purposes only. If they are used for profit or any commercial purposes for financial gain the permission will be secured from the Entrant in writing. Note the MAF will give credit to the photographer when a photo is published or used as described.

Jury Decisions:

The selections made by the jury are considered final on all issues related to the competition.
